I don't know where to begin. I was floored when the FCC put so much pressure on Clear Channel that they had no choice but to get rid of Bubba the Love Sponge. I have accepted that programming that is available to anyone is going to be more strickly monitered, I don't agree with it, but I accept it. The problem is that Parents need to moniter their children and what they listen to, not the FCC. For the record I have 3 kids ranging in age from 9 - 13. I am sick of The FCC telling me what is appropriate. I pride myself on being an American and having the rights of an american, one of which happens to be freedom of speech. Now they want to tell me that I can't even pay to listen to things that I want to listen to. Enough already. What is this country coming to, honestly it scares me.
